Policy Title: Professional Liability Insurance, Health and Disability Insurance Policy

Purpose: To describe the methods of Professional Liability Insurance, Health and Disability Insurance

Policy Type: Sponsoring Institution/Sponsored Program Policy

Professional Liability Insurance

1. OSU-CHS/OMECO will ensure that Sponsored Programs are providing residents with professional liability insurance in accordance with ACGME requirements. Details will be documented in the Trainees' employment agreement (contract).
2. OSU-CHS/OMECO will review and approve a model Trainee agreement for each Sponsored Program. This model agreement shall include the following provision providing Trainees with professional liability coverage, including legal defense and protection against awards from claims reported or filed during participation in each of its ACGME Sponsored Programs, or after completion of the program(s) if the alleged acts of omissions of a Trainee are within the scope of the program(s). The Sponsored Program agreements shall be forwarded to the OSU-CHS/OMECO DIO for approval.
3. The Participating Sites shall provide copies of said policies to the OSU-CHS/OMECO DIO and must provide official documentation of the details of liability coverage upon request of the individual Trainee.

Health and Disability Insurance

1. OSU-CHS/OMECO will ensure that each Sponsored Program will provide Trainees with health and disability insurance and other benefits in accordance with ACGME requirements. This will be described as part of the insurance and other benefits in accordance with ACGME requirements. This will be described as part of the Trainee agreement.

2. If Trainees are required to report to the program (e.g., orientation) prior to being eligible for health or disability coverage, then residents must be made aware of the option to purchase a temporary policy for the non-covered period.
