

PLEASE MR. CROCODILE

OBJECT OF THE GAME:

Cross the river without getting caught!

WHAT YOU'LL NEED:

- A large playing space (yard, living room, etc.)
- A group of 3 or more people

INSTRUCTIONS:

Setup: Choose one player to stand in the middle of the yard and be "Mr. Crocodile." All other players will stand side by side on one end of the yard.

Playing the Game: Players chant "Please Mr. Crocodile may we cross the river? If not, why not, what's your favorite color?" Mr. Crocodile calls out one color and any player wearing that color is safe to cross to the other side of the yard. Players not wearing that color must run across the space without being caught by Mr. Crocodile. The player that is caught becomes the next Mr. Crocodile and the game starts again.
